

BALD EAGLE OF AMERICA; BLACK EAGLE OF GERMANY

The Two Are Fraternizing in the City of Washington
Today—Americans Cheering for Prince Henry and Kaiser Wilhelm.

WARM RECEPTION BY THE PRESIDENT

Beautiful Day in the Capital City, and Thousands Gathered to Greet the German Prince—Scenes and Incidents of the Day.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Throughout the city the bald eagle of America and the black eagle of Germany are fraternizing today. On the streets crowds of Americans are cheering for Prince Henry and Kaiser Wilhelm. The day broke clear and beautiful and though it was not known that the prince's train would arrive until ten o'clock the crowds began to form long before that hour. Hundreds came from Maryland, Virginia and Washington itself turned out en masse. Bands paraded the streets playing American and German airs.

Procession to White House.
The prince's train rolled into the depot a few seconds after ten twenty. No time was lost in preparing for the ride to the White House and while the police and militia held back the crowds the party were escorted to the carriages. The military escort was quickly formed and the drive began. Through the streets jammed with people the procession passed and then the White House was reached the soldiers and police experienced much difficulty in keeping back the crowd.

Prince Was Much Pleased.
Attired in the uniform of an admiral the prince sat in an open carriage with the Secretary of State Hay and Rear Admiral Evans. Behind them came more carriages with the members of the prince's suit and navy officers in full dress uniforms. Flags and handkerchiefs were waved as the prince's carriage passed through the crowded line of march and complimentary German Hochs were intermingled with sharp yells. The prince enjoyed the enthusiasm immensely and fairly glowed with pleasure. There was almost a constant motion of his right arm as his hand went to the peak of his cocked hat in acknowledgment of the greetings.

Washington Greets the Prince.
Washington, Feb. 24.—Washington is revolving today around Prince Henry. From his arrival here a few minutes after twelve o'clock until his departure at midnight for New York he will be the center of official and diplomatic attention. He called on the president and ambassadors of foreign powers, and received calls from other officials and from the entire diplomatic corps.

Arrived in Washington.
When the prince arrived at the depot he found awaiting him Secretary Hay and Secretary Long. Both cabinet officers greeted him and were presented by the prince to his suite. Then the prince accompanied by Secretary Hay and Rear Admiral Evans entered the first carriage and drove slowly along Pennsylvania avenue to the White House.

Secretary Long entered the carriage with Admiral von Tirpitz, secretary of state from the German navy. Assistant Secretary of State Hill, who came from New York with the prince, rode to the White House with Admiral Count von Baudissin and Major General Corbin was the personal escort of General von Plessen.

At the White House.
There was only a small party at the White House. It consisted of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt, members of the cabinet and their ladies, Secretary and Mrs. Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary and Mrs. Loeb and Surgeon General and Mrs. Rixey.

Prince Henry met President Roosevelt in the blue room of the White House and communicated to him the messages which he had been charged by his brother to deliver.

He then, accompanied only by Rear Admiral Evans, proceeded to the German embassy.

The president immediately returned the call of the prince. The commissioners of the District of Columbia then appeared and Mr. McFarland, their chairman, delivered an address of welcome and extended the freedom of the city to the royal visitor.

Call on Ambassadors.
The prince then called on the ambassadors and returned to the embassy to receive the diplomatic corps. At 4 p. m. the prince, accompanied by the German ambassador and his suite, will go to the capitol, where he will be received by the committees of the two houses, and it is believed he will be given the privileges of the floors.

From the capitol he will go to the library, and after inspecting that building will return to the embassy where he will prepare for dinner at the White House at 8 p. m.

The White House refuses to make public the list of dinner guests. It will include the cabinet, prominent members of congress and the diplomatic corps. Of course the prince and suite and the staff will be at the table. The list is subject to change and will not be given to the press until late this afternoon.

After dinner the prince will leave

at midnight by special train for New York.

WELCOME FOR THE PRINCE

Saluted by Uncle Sam's Battleships in New York Harbor

New York, Feb. 24.—Prince Henry, brother of the German emperor, accompanied by a brilliant staff of officers high in rank in the German army and navy, is now a guest of the United States.

The prince arrived on the steamer Kronprinz Wilhelm at the Thirty-fourth street pier, North river, at five minutes before noon yesterday.

His official welcome, which began with the firing of salutes by Fort Wadsworth and Fort Hamilton, the boarding of the Kronprinz off Fort Wadsworth by Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans and his staff, and salutes of twenty-one guns each from the battleship Illinois and the cruisers Olympia, Cincinnati and San Francisco, was continued after the prince boarded the royal yacht Hohenzollern by a series of official calls from Mayor Low, Admiral Barker and his staff, and the German ambassador and staff.

The unofficial welcome, though unaccompanied by gold lace and the roar of cannon, was none the less sincere and apparently was quite as much appreciated by the distinguished visitor as were the more perfunctory ceremonies.

The popular welcome began with the tooting of tug and steamboat whistles for down the lower bay when the huge Kronprinz first loomed in shadowy outline out of the mist that hung over the water. The liner had arrived at the bar at 8:30 a. m.

The whistle blowing continued in increasing volume all the way up the bay and the North river, and on the final home stretch from the battery to the pier was accompanied by the shouts and cheers of thousands upon thousands of people, who swarmed along the sea walls and on every pier lead on both sides of the river.

Standing alone, erect and clear cut in his handsome uniform of an admiral, on the extreme end of the ship's bridge, the prince returned these greetings by repeatedly touching his hat.

Beyond the curtailing of certain features of the reception here, the late arrival of the prince will make no change in the program already arranged. The thread of events as planned was taken up last night by the prince's departure at midnight for Washington, and with no ill luck to prevent will be carried out to the letter until his departure for Germany on March 11.

It was Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans who first sighted the Kronprinz as it showed, a misty blur far down toward Sandy Hook. All day Friday and all Friday night Admiral Evans had been on board his flagship, the Illinois, as it lay at anchor off Tompkinsville, Staten Island, with the three other warships of the squadron trailing in a straight line behind it.

Late Saturday evening Mr. Williams of the staff of junior officers of the Illinois telephoned to Staten Island that the Kronprinz had been heard from by the wireless telegraph station at Nantuxet and would be up to quarantine at 10 o'clock in the morning. These good tidings were carried aboard the Illinois by Junior Officer Brophy, and thus the air of uncertainty about the squadron came to an end.

SUPREME COURT SUSTAINS MERGER

The Gist of the Decision is That the Court Has No Jurisdiction.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The United States Supreme court handed down a decision today in the application of the state of Minnesota against the Northern Securities Company. It is in favor of the company.

The gist of the decision is that the court has no jurisdiction. It is also asserted that here is no way in which the title of the state of Minnesota can be amended to bring it within the jurisdiction of the court.

The meeting of musicians called for yesterday afternoon at Assembly hall to organize a musician's union was postponed for a week on account of the absence of Organizer Hogan.

AN EXTRA SESSION IS NOW LIKELY

Governor La Follette's Mind About Made Up to Issue Call for the Legislature.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 24.—Evidence is accumulating daily that an extra session of the Wisconsin legislature for the consideration of the taxation question is likely to be called. While out at Madison it is still stated that there have been no definite steps taken upon the subject it can be said that Gov. La Follette has within the last few weeks discussed the subject with a number of LaFollette leaders throughout the state and that he has been given some very strong advice in favor of the summoning of an extra session. The matter was discussed at a conference which a certain Milwaukee politician had with Governor La Follette not over two weeks ago and at this conference the governor was told by the Milwaukee politician that he considered that the calling of the extra session would be good politics. The plans of the governor, however, will probably not be made public till late in March or early in April, and if an extra session is called it will probably be summoned to meet in Madison the last of April or early in May.

The original intention if a session was called was to have it meet the middle of April but it is now said that it is likely that the legislators if they are summoned together will not be called to Madison until at least April 25, and possibly not until May 1.

BEAUMONT OIL AS A LUNG REMEDY

Some Remarkable Cures Claimed to Have Been Made with Texas Oil.

Hempstead, Texas, Feb. 24.—It is claimed that crude Beaumont oil is a splendid remedy for all bronchial and lung affections. Rev. E. H. Harmon, a prominent clergyman of Brenham, says that he was afflicted with bronchitis in its worst form and was induced to try the remedial effects of the oil six weeks ago and is now completely cured. Eugene Eldrid of Brenham has been taking the oil for pulmonary trouble and it has brought a wonderful change for the better in his condition.

Many people in Hempstead are taking the oil and its use is gradually becoming general throughout this part of the state. The dose is from fifteen to twenty drops of oil upon a lump of sugar three times a day.

It is stated by physicians that there are no injurious properties in the oil, while its cheapness places it within the reach of everyone. It is believed that it is the sulphur constituent of the oil that gives it its curative properties.

RIOT IN PONCE, PORTO RICO.

Allegation That Political Agitators Incited Strikers to Disorder.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Feb. 24.—Dispatches received from Ponce say that political agitators incited a riot of the striking ironworkers there Friday and that bloodshed was averted only with the greatest difficulty. A mob, numbering hundreds of persons, controlled Ponce for hours, the police not being numerous enough to suppress the disorder. The chief of police and the American engineer of the road were surrounded after the chief had arrested the ringleader of the rioting. A crowd followed the men to the city hall, shouting: "Down with the Americans!" The chief, thanks to the coolness and firmness of the American employees of the road, who were armed with revolvers, prevented a serious conflict.

Scoury Follows Onion Cart.

Port Townsend, Wash., Feb. 24.—According to a letter received here from Nome, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue E. H. Flagg bought nearly all the shipments of vegetables arriving at Nome on the last few steamers until the supply of onions was entirely under his control and his purchases of other vegetables caused a serious shortage. As onions are a preventive of scurvy they are now hoarding almost at their weight in gold.

Twenty-Five Banks to Merge.

New York, Feb. 24.—The incorporation under the laws of New Jersey of the Interstate Trust company is the first step, it is declared, in a proposed merger under one management of a chain of twenty-one banks, extending from the extreme East to the middle West. Negotiations are going on with bankers in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin. Most of these institutions are known as "country banks," but a few are located in large cities.

Man and Woman Asphyxiated.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 24.—James McGlashan, aged 35 years, a foreman on the construction department of the Michigan Telephone company, and an unidentified woman, were found dead Saturday in a house in Park place. Gas had escaped from the stove in the room and suffocated the couple. The gas had also penetrated into the adjoining room, in which Marguerite Stevens was asleep, and she was unconscious when found.

A very interesting meeting was held at the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday afternoon. Addresses were made by local business men and reports of the state convention at Racine were read.

MISS STONE HAS BEEN RELEASED

Reliable Report That the Missionary Has Gained
Her Freedom.

IS IN GOOD HEALTH

Left with Her Companions, in a Lone Village by the Outlaws.

MEAGER DETAILS OUT

Washington, Feb. 24.—The State Department yesterday received a dispatch from the United States legation in Constantinople regarding Miss Stone's case. It was encouraging in character, and, while it did not report Miss Stone's release as an assured fact, yet the tenor was such as to lead the officials confidently to believe that such a happy consummation was a matter of a very few hours.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 24.—Miss Stone's relatives in Chelsea and Haverhill have received positive assurances that she has been released.

Constantinople, Feb. 24.—Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, who, with Mme. Talika, was captured by brigands in the district of Silozia on Sept. 3 last, and who had been released some time since upon the payment of a heavy ransom, arrived at Strumitza, in Macedonia, at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Talika and her baby, who were also released at the same time, are well. Miss Stone's arrival was unexpected, as the authorities had no intimation that the brigands would escort her to the vicinity of Strumitza. The first news of Miss Stone's release was contained in a telegram received by Mr. Dickinson, the American Consul General at Constantinople, from the American Vice Consul at Salonica. The telegram gives no details of the release. As Strumitza is near the Salonica-Uskub railroad, Miss Stone will proceed to Salonica without delay.

London, Feb. 24.—Cabling from Constantinople the correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says he understands that, owing to the necessity of protecting the innocent persons who assisted them, the American delegates will never divulge where and how the ransom money for the release of Miss Stone was paid.

Miss Stone, continues the correspondent, is certainly innocent of any knowledge of the plot to kidnap her, but strong suspicions are entertained about some Bulgarians who accompanied her party or remained behind.

The press this morning expresses its pleasure and relief at the release of Miss Stone. These expressions are coupled with comments upon the danger that all persons traveling in eastern Europe are likely to run after such an unfortunate precedent, although it is admitted to be difficult to suggest an effective remedy.

FIRST BORN OF THE BADGER STATE

Oldest Resident of Wisconsin Dies at Prairie du Chien, Aged 104 Years.

Prairie du Chien, Wis., Feb. 24.—Mrs. Louisa DeChamp, aged 104 years, the first white child born in this state, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Moses Duquette, at noon. She was born here in 1789, when only few white families lived in the northwest, and she has resided in this city all her life. Only a few days ago she said she had seen the country pass from barbarians to civilized people, the rude dug-out on the Mississippi give way to floating palaces, Indian trails converted into steel roadways and the few score of civilized people in the west swelled into millions. She passed away in a peaceful sleep without being ill a day.

A BAD WRECK ON ROAD AT ANTIGO

Three Trainmen Killed, One Hurt,
and Twenty Cars Piled Up on Northwestern Railway.

Antigo, Wis., Feb. 24.—A head-on collision between two freight trains occurred early yesterday morning on the Northwestern road near Summit Lake, sixteen miles north of this city. Fred Lyons and Roy McLaughlin, brakemen, and Bert Nightizer, fireman, were instantly killed, and Harry Hogan, engineer, badly hurt. Twenty cars of lumber, logs and merchandise were piled together. No trains were able to get through till last evening.

Mountain of Arsenic.

Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 24.—John T. Davis and his associates have discovered a mountain of arsenic in a range fifty miles southeast of Tacoma. The ore can be mined cheaply and the property will be developed on a large scale.

NATIVES CAPTURE FILIPINO LEADERS

General Cortez Is Made a Prisoner and Turned Over to the Americans.

Manila, Feb. 24.—General Cortez, second in command to General Malvar, was captured by the native constabulary at Santa Cruz, in the Province of Laguna.

Cortez was in a suburb of Santa Cruz known as Alipit, and was raising funds for the Insurrection. A friendly native informed Inspector Sorenson of this fact and the capture of Cortez followed.

Few insurgents remain in the provinces of Bantanga and Laguna. The large number of surrenders in different parts of Southern Luzon mark the climax arising from the two months' campaign of General Bell and the native constabulary. During the last week twenty-two officers and 226 riflemen surrendered.

Colonel Willegras' command in Cavite province has surrendered after killing Colonel Willegras, because he refused to sanction a surrender.

General Bell reports that the municipal officers at Lipa which was formerly a hotbed of insurrection, have organized a force of 300 natives, who are chasing General Malvar with excellent success.

General Trias the present governor of Cavite Province, who formerly bitterly opposed the Americans in that district, has given proof of his true friendliness and is using every effort to run down and capture the Cavite Ladrone. He is sending volunteer companies of bolomen to assist the constabulary to suppress disorder.

The natives of Cavite Province, provoked at the continued disorder created by the ladrone, are spontaneously offering themselves in large numbers to assist the authorities in maintaining peace in the province. The civil commission recognizes this attitude to be largely due to the influence of General Trias.

BADGER STATE BASE BALL LEAGUE

REPORT ON OLEO BILL

Senate Committee Approves It as Passed by the House with Slight Amendment.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 24.—The senate committee on agriculture at a meeting Saturday voted to make a favorable report on the bill taxing at 10 cents a pound oleomargarine colored in imitation of butter and a quarter of a cent when uncolored.

Section 4 of the bill, relating to renovated butter and allowing the state to regulate the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine, was stricken out.

As agreed upon, the bill is practically the same as passed by the house.

DUEL REPORTS ARE ENTIRELY UNTRUE

Washington, D. C., Feb. 24.—Reports of arrangements made for a duel between United States Senators Tillman and McLaurin are entirely untrue.

Aldeo Man Is Missing.

Aledo, Ill., Feb. 24.—On Feb. 11 Hayes C. Dool of this place left here for Chicago, expecting to return within two or three days. Since that time he has not been heard from. He was recently married, and his wife and mother, Mrs. Theresa Dool, fear he has met with some serious mishap. He has been traced to Burlington, Iowa, but beyond that nothing can be heard of him.

Bank Examiner Killed Dying.

Prairie du Chien, Wis., Feb. 24.—Bank Examiner E. I. Kidd, who has been seriously ill for some time, has taken neither nourishment nor stimulants for forty-eight hours, and although still alive is not expected to survive twelve hours longer. He is in a semi-conscious condition and does not recognize his relatives or attendants.

Murder at Mount Vernon.

Mount Vernon, Ill., Feb. 24.—Richard Gilliam was assaulted last night by two men, one firing a revolver at his head, killing him instantly. He had just returned from church. Harry Stuart, George Hatfield and Albert Young were arrested, charged with the killing.

J. C. Welch returned last evening after a few weeks' visit with friends and relatives in southern Illinois.

BARS TILLMAN FROM DINNER

President Strikes Senator's Name from the Invitation List.

PLEA FOR M'LAURIN

The Onus for Dignified Assault in Senate Is All Laid to Tillman.

WANT TO EXPEL BOTH

Washington, D. C., Feb. 24.—Senators Tillman and McLaurin of South Carolina are still in contempt, not only at the capitol but at the White House. President Roosevelt has decided that Senator Tillman, having disgraced himself by a savage attack upon his colleague, McLaurin, on the floor of the senate Saturday afternoon shall not be present at a dinner given Prince Henry tonight to which he had been invited.

There is a strong sentiment in the senate that the two offending members should be expelled and President Roosevelt's action did not allay this feeling.

At an informal conference at the White House today it was held that, as Senator Tillman is practically under suspension, it would be a lack of respect to the senate to receive him at an official White House dinner until he is purged of his contempt and is fully restored to his status as senator.

McLaurin's Case Is Different.

Senator McLaurin was not invited to the dinner, but if he had been with invitation might not have been withdrawn, because his offense was merely one against the dignity of the senate, and consisted entirely in charging that Tillman's statement was an outrageous lie.

Owing to the constant watch maintained upon them by friends and officials, including a squad of detectives the two South Carolina senators have thus far kept their hands off each other.

The southern contingent here in Washington is tremendously excited over the episode. The opinion of the ex-confederates is that there will have to be a fight to clear the atmosphere, and this constant discussion of the possibilities of bloodshed is believed to be one of the most serious features of the situation.

Nothing but Blood.

Each of the South Carolina senators has a special circle of camp followers, who will be certain to inform him that Colonel Bob, and Major Dick and General Tom are unanimously of the opinion that nothing but blood can wipe out the indignity of a blow.

As each man was struck once or twice each senator has a motive for a fight, and for this reason predictions are still freely made that a hostile meeting between the two men is not only possible, but extremely probable.

Many Do Not Blame McLaurin.
There is a feeling on the part of some senators that McLaurin is not properly in contempt of the senate, and the judgment of the committee as regards him may be quite different from that which will be directed against his antagonist in the fist encounter.

Mr. McLaurin today would make no statement beyond the assertion that he could not have done less than he did when characterized the statement of his colleague as a lie. Had he not resented the insult in the place where it had been given him, Mr. McLaurin said, he could not have gone back to his state and faced his people.

Tillman Planned the Attack.

The attack of Senator Tillman upon his colleague was not made upon the spur of a moment. This is evident from statements made by the senator to some of his colleagues after the heat of the encounter had worn off, although Mr. Tillman would not discuss the case for publication.

Talking with one of his senatorial friends Mr. Tillman said today that he was driven to bay by the questions of Mr. Spooner, and that he hesitated as long as he could. The prodding of Mr. Spooner, however, drove him to a point where he could no longer halt, and he gave the name of Senator against whom his accusations had been aimed.

Some Senators Urge Full Penalty.

One member of the committee, and an influential one at that, will certainly contend for the greatest punishment possible. The view of this Senator is approved by a number of others, who hold that the character of the speeches made by Mr. Tillman have brought the body into disrepute and that the vituperation heaped upon members of the senate and administration will certainly contend for the greatest punishment possible. The view of this senator is approved by a number of others, who hold that the character of the speeches made by Mr. Tillman have brought the body into disrepute and that the vituperation heaped upon members of the senate and administration will, if permitted to be continued, lose the respect of the country and the world for the senate and the republican form of government. If the views of this faction prevail expulsion may result for Mr. Tillman. A two-thirds vote is required to expel, but a majority vote can inflict any other kind of punishment even to the commitment of Mr. Tillman to jail.

Some Farm Notes.

Barley can be made a more profitable crop than it is now given credit for being. It may be grown as a feed crop and other grains be sold which it may displace. There are a number of reasons why farmers do not like to grow barley, and yet there are as many reasons why he does not like to dig a tile drain. There is no reason why an up-to-date farmer should not grow fifty bushels of barley per acre. The beards will be troublesome and rains will discolor it, but it can even then be employed as a feed for almost all kinds of stock. Its food value is very close to that of corn and wheat.

Cornshredders are more plentiful than a year ago. There may be less demand for them another year than there was this. Farmers will soon learn their value and shredded corn will find its place in the farm economy.

The sunny side of a corn crib or a building will make a little better shelter than the opposite but it does not make the best shelter after all. There should be no question raised as to whether it will pay to provide shelter for live stock. It is expensive trying to shelter stock by feeding them on high priced corn and hay.

There is no good reason why a farmer and his wife should answer the word "slave." The man on a farm can make a slave of himself and his entire family if he desires, but there is no call for it. Rather he should be called a king in his calling, and the wife should be queen of the household. A good deal of slavery is done on the farm to gratify ambition. It may be to accumulate land, money, live stock or for the education of sons and daughters. It is not necessary to enslave any person in these times, when prosperity should be enjoyed.

In talking with a farmer recently who sowed a great deal of clover seed, he said he liked to divide his seed and make two sowings of it. He selected as much seed as he wanted and sowed one-half in the late winter or early spring when the soil was honey-combed with cracks and crevices formed by frost, and the other half was sown when the ground was in a condition to work. This may be a good plan, but I prefer to sow what I do sow when the soil can be worked with an implement and put it in the soil and not on top of the ground. Frost will kill some plants when they have arrived at a certain stage of growth when sown early and no mistake about it. Drouth and hot weather will more in July and August, but some allowance must be made for these contingencies.

A mule will do a great many things a horse can do and yet he will not do for many northern farmers. He is not popular in the north.

If one changes seed with a neighbor he should get equally as good as he gives. A great many foul weed seeds are introduced by exchanges. Hence the necessity of cleaning the seed.

Cause and effect is a problem that has been studied for many years. We have learned that certain causes bring about certain effects. I do not mean by these that the moon changing at a certain time of the day will bring about certain effects of weather, or any thing of the kind. There are those who claim that when there is a scarcity of corn there is usually a more healthy condition among swine than when it is more plentiful. I am not prepared to claim that too much corn will cause cholera, but that too much corn fed to hogs will bring about a condition where cholera will break out when cholera germs are present.

Timothy O. Green, father of Mrs. Q. C. Sutherland is seriously ill.

Two inches of snow is equal to one fourth of an inch of rain, but it does more good. We are told by scientific gentlemen that every flake of snow is laden with particles of matter that can be utilized as plant food.

Nothing in this world I dislike to haul from town more than kerosene in a small can. It will spill when one does not want it, and to head this off it is better to buy by the barrel or by the twenty gallons. A tank that will hold a barrel will soon pay for itself.

If it pays to have a lantern it will pay to have it always filled and in good trim, for the very time it is needed most will be when it is out of condition if it is permitted to become so. Young Furrows, who is farming for himself, has a little case just large enough to hold a lantern in a convenient place and his lantern is always kept there in trim, is sheltered from the elements and is ready for any emergency. Procure a box just large enough for the lantern and provide it with a lid and a hinge, and nail it to the side of the house near the door or in some other convenient place and always keep it there when not in use.

Don't throw a harrow away just because the teeth need sharpening. It is far better to have them sharpened than it is to buy a new implement. It pays to have a good harrow and it should be so that it will cut a "wide swath" when there is plenty of team power.

Don't be fooled into the belief that weeds destroyed after growing and allowed to return to the soil will return all that fertility that has been removed. These weeds have removed the moisture, which is a positive loss. The plant food taken up by the weeds from the soil is tied up in dry fiber and is not available to the crops that season. When they decay then they are available, but no more is added to the soil than was originally there. There is a positive loss for some of the nutriment has been carried away by the wind.

No matter what the price of seed, eight quarts of clean clover seed should be sown on acre. Half of it may be useless some seasons, but I would rather waste one-half of it than to have one-half of it be half enough for another kind of a season and thus obtain a half a stand. It scarcely costs more than a dollar an acre for clover seed, although some years it may cost more. I would rather have a dollar's worth of the best seed than a dollar's worth of medium quality. Dealers have to keep what farmers want and few of them keep the best seed because they do not desire the reputation of being high-priced.

Many farmers will grow largely of sorghum as a drouth desisting plant the coming summer. The conditions of this summer may be the opposite of last season, but no one knows that.

A western paper publishes an account of a gardner who grows mushrooms on leaves of stale rye bread instead of by the ordinary method. Most people are acquainted in a way, with the festive qualities of certain products of rye, but this is the first time it has been claimed that rye bread is the proper medium on which to grow the succulent mushroom.

Where one man succeeds with clover there will be found nine others who do not know the first principles of clover culture.

Happy is the man who is cutting down and hauling up the old willow or poplar hedge around the farm to be cut up into summer wood. A hedge of this kind is no hedge and the proper place for it is either in the fire or on some other man's land. —Wisconsin Farmer.

THE ROCK COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

ELECTION OF WILLIAM SMITH FOR PRESIDENT.

The Report of the Secretary Shows That the Society is in a Progressive Condition—Address of H. B. Dow in Memorial of the Late S. J. Todd of Beloit.

The annual meeting of the Rock County Bar Association was held in the Circuit Court room this morning immediately after the calling of the calendar for the February term of the circuit court. Members from Beloit, Evansville and Janesville were present.

President Wm. Smith of this city presided and called the meeting to order. He stated that this was the annual meeting at which time officers for the ensuing year were to be elected and other general business transacted after which memorials to the late S. J. Todd of Beloit and H. A. Patterson of this city would be presented.

The election of officers was first taken up and the following were the unanimous choice of the association: President—Wm. Smith. Vice President—George G. Sutherland.

Secretary—E. D. McGowan. Treasurer—A. E. Matheson.

The report of the secretary on the financial condition of the association showed that the receipts had been $35.96 and the disbursements $33 leaving a balance of $2.96. The society owed two bills amounting in all to $14.10. It was ordered that all dues up to last year be remitted and the dues for this year be collected and used to pay these bills and the current running expenses. The chair was instructed to appoint the standing committees not appointed at this time.

On motion R. M. Richmond of Evansville, L. E. Gettle, Edgerton; T. D. Woolsey of Beloit, John L. Fisher, O. A. Oestreich, S. D. Tallman, Chas. E. Dunn, George K. Tallman, E. H. Peterson, S. W. Reeder, William Dougherty, Burr J. Scott and Jesse Earle were elected members of the association.

The thanks of the bar were tendered Judge W. P. Lyon for a portrait of himself which will be hung in the circuit court room.

President Smith stated that on account of the illness of Mrs. Patterson and also of her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Kemmett, the presentation of the memorial to Judge H. A. Patterson would be postponed to some future date.

J. B. Dow from the memorial committee on the late S. J. Todd of Beloit presented a touching memorial on the deceased in which he said:

Our S. J. Todd was of a type differing from the major part of his co-workers, that he stood upon a higher plane, with loftier conceptions of life and deeper convictions, regarding what man's relations should be to each other. He loved life, its companionships, his home, his family, his neighbor, he was a loyal helper in all that issued to their well doing. Unlike many, however, he met uncomplainingly and with heroic fortitude life's hard conditions.

For Mr. Todd wealth and temporal power possessed no allurements. He was satisfied with the compensation his labor yielded and measured by his own conceptions of value. He commanded universal respect. He possessed and individuality which had no counterpart.

Convinced he was right respecting a proposition of law or a flaw in a title the combined bench and bar of the state would fall to invite him to retract from his position. He was a hard student, his advice to the student in his office was, read and interpret for yourself—read and reflect. He was two years a member of the state senate and one of the revisors of the statutes. He was mayor of the city of Beloit, city attorney and member of the school board for a number of years.

In his service to men, Mr. Todd sought to reconcile them to each other, to tone down their grievances and persuade them that a peaceful adjustment was by far the better course. He was a large factor in formulating conditions and helping to pave the way for the industrial and business prosperity of Beloit. He was a true and loyal friend always, a rare and noble man, whose excellencies of mind and heart and character none could excel.

Judge J. W. Sale followed Mr. Dow and paid a touching tribute to the deceased.

He stated that he became acquainted with Mr. Todd when he came to Janesville in 1867. He was an ideal lawyer, able, careful, conscientious, studious and honest. He would give good advice to his clients, even though it caused him pecuniary injury. He never tried to deceive the court, always absolutely honest and open to be convinced, always a lawyer in the truest sense. He had often received briefs and suggestions from Mr. Todd on knotty questions that did him great good. He was almost as a father to him and no man ever stirred his affection like Mr. Todd.

President William Smith stated he became acquainted with Mr. Todd in 1864, when the firm was Todd & Converse, and at that time they were the leading lawyers in the county and had many more cases on the court calendar than any other firm. He was a man who carried the respect of all.

Edwin F. Carpenter had known him for thirty-two years as a man that dared to be honest and dared to do right. He gave much counsel to people to keep them out of lawsuits to his own personal injury.

A. A. Jackson had known Mr. Todd for forty-five years as a man loyal to his own conscience and loyal to his profession.

At the conclusion of the addresses the motion that a copy of the memorial be presented to the family of Mr. Todd and also to the supreme court was passed unanimously. On motion the meeting adjourned.

LARGESHIPMENT OF TOBACCO TO ORIENT

Demand for Materials for Smoking Grows in China and Japan—500 Cars to Go.

Contracts lately secured by western roads call for what is believed to be the largest movement of tobacco from this country to the orient on record. They call for the shipment of 500 car loads of tobacco in the last from Virginia and Wisconsin via Chicago St. Paul to Japan and China, where the crude weed will be converted into cigars and cigarettes.

During the past two years there has not been much tobacco shipped from this country to the orient. Cigars and cigarettes have gone in large consignments but little of leaf tobacco has been shipped. The tobacco in the big shipment that has just been arranged for will be in hogheads.

Part of the tobacco is now enroute from the southeast. The roads that have captured the business from the southeast to Chicago and from there to the twin cities are not made known but the bulk of it will go from St. Paul and Minneapolis over the great Northern line and the rest will go by the Northern Pacific. The former will haul the tobacco to Seattle, where it will be delivered to steamships for the Orient, and the latter line will take its traffic to Tacoma.

Up to this year the finished product of tobacco, cigars and cigarettes, principally the latter, has been shipped to the orient in preference to the raw weed. The easterners are now demanding the crude leaf, preferring to make their own cigarettes. Japan is the bigger market for American tobacco, though the trade with China has increased considerably during the past six or eight months, or since that country has been opened more freely to the products of other lands.

FEBRUARY TERM OF THE CIRCUIT COURT

Of the Twenty-Eight Cases Entered for Trial on Issue of Fact, Only Fifteen Are for Trial.

The February term of the circuit court was opened this morning at nine o'clock by Judge H. F. Dunwiddie presiding. The first order of business was the calling of the calendar to see what disposition would be made of the cases. From the number of cases set for trial that are to be tried by a jury, it looks as if the jury term would be short. Of the twenty-eight cases entered in the calendar as issue of fact for the jury only fifteen are for trial.

The case of Ann Collins against the city, for personal injuries is set for trial on February 25 and will be the first case on the jury calendar.

These are of O. J. Kirkpatrick against James Mills, for damages for false imprisonment will follow the Collins case.

Thomas J. Williams against Ogden H. Fethers is set for March 7 at 9 a. m. and the case of W. H. Rogers against R. J. Maltress for damages, growing out of the seizure of Prof. Gleason's horses last fall, is set for trial on March 5.

Robert L. Horne against the C. & N. W. R. R. will be taken up February 28.

Of the thirty-seven issues of fact for the court twenty-nine of them are for trial. In the case of John Broderick vs. Emma Belle Curry, another judge will be called. In the case of George Wise vs. William Byrne, the defendant filed an affidavit for change of venue. All three of the issues of law for the court on the calendar are set for trial. Cases number 2-11-12-13-14-15 are placed on the day calendar for Tuesday.

THE JUNIOR LEAGUE BUSINESS MEETING

BELOIT WANTS THE MARZLUFF FACTORY

Have Proposition Under Consideration Which Must Be Answered No Later Than Thursday.

A meeting of business men was held in Beloit this morning to consider a proposition made them by E. M. Marzluff of this city, to move his shoe business to that city.

Mr. Marzluff made Beloit practically the same proposition that he made Janesville. That a stock company with $100,000 capital be formed, he and his associates to take $40,000, and the citizens the balance or $60,000, on which he will guarantee a 6 1/2 per cent. dividend and will secure the stockholders by insurance policies for $60,000 on his life.

He also asks that a building be erected for him and he will guarantee the builders a certain percentage on their investment.

The matter was given a thorough going over by the Beloit business men and a committee was appointed to visit this city this afternoon and look into the matter.

Mr. Marzluff has given Beloit until Thursday to consider his proposition if a favorable answer is given him by that time he will move to Beloit.

This is the same proposition that Janesville will have to grapple with at the meeting to be held this evening, if they wish to keep Marzluff & Co. in this city. Every reasonable effort should be made at this time to keep the factory in this city.

BUSINESS MEN'S MEETING.

Captain W. T. Vankirk has taken upon himself the responsibility of calling a meeting at the council rooms this evening to discuss the reorganization of the Business Men's Club. That some kind of an organization would be helpful to the city is generally conceded. The meeting will furnish an opportunity for intelligent discussion and should be well attended.

EXCHANGE BLOWS IN THE SENATE

Tillman Accuses Colleague
- of Trading His Vote for Patronage.

"IT'S A LIE!" SAYS M'LAURIN.

Both Senators Declared to Be in Contempt of the Senate and Are Suspended Awaiting a Report from the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, South Carolina, Saturday afternoon made an assault on his colleague, Senator John L. Mc-Laurin, on the floor of the Senate.

The two Senators thereupon engaged in a fist fight until separated by the officers and members of the Senate. Immediately thereafter they were adjudged in contempt of the Senate,
were formally suspended, and are now
members of the upper house of Congress in name only, being admitted to the floor, but without the privilege of speaking or voting.

Mr. Tillman's provocation was the public denunciation of one of his statements as "a willful, malicious and deliberate lie" by the junior Senator from South Carolina, Mr. McLaurin, during his absence from the chamber, of securing the patronage of his state in payment for his vote in favor of the Spanish treaty. Immediately he was notified of the charge Mr. McLaurin went to his seat and requested a hearing, and the denunciation, the personal, clash and other incidents of the remarkable affair followed.

Mr. Tillman struck the first blow, brushing aside Mr. Teller and upsetting a chair in his rush to confront his colleague. Mr. McLaurin, who had stepped forward to meet his opponent, was hit on the forehead and struck back, landing on Mr. Tillman's nose, drawing blood. A general mix-up followed, and the blows were falling thick and fast when the combatants were dragged apart and pinioned by those first to reach them. One of the peacekeepers, Sergeant at Arms Layton, was struck in separating the men.

After the action by the Senate suspending the men and they had been given the privilege of the floor to apologize, Mr. Tillman asked the permission of the Senate, but made no apology to his colleague. Mr. McLaurin's statement was more of an explanation
than an apology, and when he began a threat—"If there is any more of that talk"—friends persuaded him to desist,
and it is believed another violent scene
was averted.

During the fight Senators all over the chamber were on their feet. Not a word, however, was spoken. The Senate never in its history had received such a shock.

The president pro tem, Mr. Frye, was the first to regain composure. He rapped sharply two or three times
with his gavel, and in a few moments
a semblance of order was obtained.
Mr. Gaillard was the first to address the chair.

"Mr. President," said he, "I ask that the doors be closed."

Again, the president pro tem, requested the Senate to be in order and that the Senators resume their seats.

It was reserved for Mr. Pritchard (N.
C.) in a measure to relieve the strain under which all were laboring. He said: "If the Senator from South Carolina (Mr. McLaurin) has concluded—" He was interrupted by Mr. McLaurin,
who said, calmly:

"I will now proceed with my remarks, which were so unceremoniously interrupted."

"I call the Senator from South Carolina to order," interrupted Mr. Teller.
"Mr. President," interjected Mr.
Foraker, "I join in that. Surely there is some way to protect the dignity of this body."

"Mr. President," said Mr. Foraker, "I move that the Senate go into executive session."

Without comment, every Senator laboring under the emotion which all endeavored to conceal, the motion was agreed to, and the doors were closed.

The proceedings after the doors were closed covered almost two hours of time and resulted in the adoption of a resolution in the form of an order, as follows:

"Ordered, that the two Senators from the state of South Carolina be declared in contempt of the Senate on account of the altercation and personal encounter between them this day in open session, and that the matter be referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, with instructions to report what action shall be taken by the Senate in regard thereto."

Before the vote was taken a number of Senators spoke, and, while there were many kind utterances regarding both Senators, there was no exception in the conclusions expressed as to the gravity and seriousness of the offense.

The first vote was taken on the declaration that the two Senators were in contempt, and it prevailed by the unanimous vote of 61 to 0 on a roll call. The remainder of the resolution, referring the matter to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, was adopted without a roll call. Both the South Carolina Senators remained in their seats during the entire secret session.

Senators Oppose Hogan.
Washington, Feb. 24.—Senators Cul-ton and Mason are prepared to take issue with President Roosevelt on the appointment of Dan Hogan as collector of internal revenue for the southern Illinois district, to succeed General

Powell. If the President sends Hogan's name to the Senate, Cul-ton and Mason, it is declared, will appeal to Senatorial courtesy to prevent confirmation.

MAY LEAVE SUPREME BENCH.

Justice Gray and Shiras Likely to Apply for Retirement.
Washington, Feb. 24.—President Roosevelt is likely to have two places
on the United States Supreme bench to fill during his first term. This is unusual. Justice Gray was stricken with paralysis the other day. His left arm and leg were seriously affected.
He is the largest man on the bench,
and one of such herculean build as to be noticeable anywhere.

Justice Shiras has just celebrated his 70th birthday. He has recently told his friends that he was longing
for rest, and he is likely, it is said,
to apply for retirement before long.
He was appointed to the Supreme bench on October 10, 1892, so that he will be eligible for retirement after having served ten years, and being 70 years old, on Oct. 10 of this year.
If he does leave the bench, it is believed that Governor Taft, now in command of the Philippines, will be given the place.

Forecast for the Week.

Washington, Feb. 24.—In accordance with the agreement heretofore reached the Senate will begin voting at 4 o'clock to-day on the Philippine tariff bill. All the time of the day's session previous to that hour will be devoted to brief speeches for and against the bill, the time to be divided between the supporters and the opponents of the bill. The irrigation bill now holds the place of vantage on the Senate
calendar next to the Philippine bill.
The bill making appropriations for Congress and the different departments of the government will be reported to the Senate during the week and probably will be taken up for action the next day after it is reported. On Thursday the Senate will unite with the House in the ceremonies in honor of the memory of President McKinley.

Proposed Cuban Tariff Concessions.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Following a conference Saturday between President Roosevelt, Chairman Payne of the ways and means committee and Messrs.
Grosvener, Long, Russell and Dalzell, the Republicans of the committee agreed upon a 20 per cent cut in the Dingley rates on all products coming into United States ports from Cuba.
In exchange it is proposed that Cuba
shall grant like concessions to American products consigned to Cuban ports.
It is further understood that Cuba shall adopt our immigration laws, the object being to keep coolie labor out of Cuba.

President's Son at Capital.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., in the care of Mrs.
Roosevelt, Dr. Rixey and Miss Alice Roosevelt, arrived at the White House
at 2:40 o'clock Saturday afternoon, the train on which the sick boy was brought from Groton having been delayed several hours by the storm. The statement was given out immediately after the arrival that young Roosevelt had not only endured the journey well but was actually better than when he left the infirmary in Groton.

ONLY A SUGGESTION.

But It Has Proven of Interest and Value to Thousands.
Common sense would suggest that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump it can only result from the food we eat and digest, and that food should be albuminous or flesh forming food, like eggs, beefsteak and cereals; in other words the kind of food that make flesh are the foods which form the greater part of our daily bills of fare.

But the trouble is that we eat enough and generally too much of the stomach from abuse and overwork,
does not properly digest and assimilate it, which is the reason so many people remain thin and under weight digestive organs do not completely digest the flesh forming beefsteak
and eggs and similar wholesome food.
There are thousands of such who are really confirmed dyspeptics, although they may have no particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs.

If such persons would lay their prejudices aside and make a regular practice of taking after each meal,
one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the food would be quickly and thoroughly digested, because these tablets contain the natural pepsines
and diastases which every weak stomach lacks, and by supplying this want the stomach is soon enabled to regain its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest
every form of flesh forming food,
meat, eggs, bread and potatoes,
and this is the reason they so quickly
build up, strengthen and invigorate thin, dyspeptic men, women and children.

Invalids and children, even the most delicate, use them with marked benefit as they contain no strong, irritating drugs, no cathartics nor any harmful ingredient.

It is the most successful and most widely known of any remedy for stomach troubles because it is the most reasonable and scientific of modern medicines.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by every druggist in the United States and Canada as well as in Great Britain, at 50 cents for complete treatment.

Nothing further is required to cure
any stomach trouble or to make thin
people plump and well.

A Bad Disease

There is a certain disease that has come down to us
through many centuries and is older than
history itself,
yet very few
outside of experience know anything of its nature or characteristics. At first a little ulcer or sore appears, then glands of the neck or groins swell; pimples break out on the breast, back or some other part of the body and fill with yellow pustular matter, the mouth and throat become sore and
the tongue is at all times badly coated.
Headaches are frequent, and muscles and joints throb and hurt, especially during damp, rainy weather. These are some of the symptoms of that most loathsome of all diseases, Contagious Blood Poison.

This strange poison does not affect all alike; some Blood Poison are literally eaten up with it within a short time after being inoculated, while others show but slight evidence of any taint for a long time, after exposure, but its tendency in every case is to complete destruction of the physical system, sooner or later.

S. S. S. is a safe and infallible cure for this bad disease—the only antidote for this specific poison. It cures Contagious Blood Poison in every form and stage thoroughly and permanently. S. S. S. contains no Mercury, Potash or other harmful minerals, but is strictly and entirely a vegetable remedy, and we offer $1,000.00 reward for proof that it is not.

OUR MEDICAL DEPARTMENT, which was established years ago, is doing a noble work in relieving suffering. Give our physicians a short history of your case and get their advice. This will cost you nothing, and what you say will be held in strictest confidence. With their help and a copy of our book on Contagious Blood Poison you can manage your own case and cure yourself at home.

TELEPHONE NEEDED BY THE FARMERS

It is a Greater Necessity to the Farmer Than to the Business Man of the City.

George Wylie, of Leeds, Wis., a member of the state board of agriculture and a prominent worker at the farmers' institutes in this state read an interesting paper on farmers' telephones at the recent farmers' mass convention at Madison. As Mr. Wylie and his neighbors have a farm line in practical operation he has thoroughly conversant with his subject and showed how cheaply a line could be built. His paper was as follows:

"The telephone is a greater necessity to the farmer on the farm than it is to the business man in the city. In the city distances are short and help of a certain kind is plenty, while in the country distances are great and help is getting scarcer every year. The farmer can, if he will, avail himself of this labor saving appliance much easier and at less expense than the business man in the city and much easier than the farmer himself imagines, unless he has investigated the subject in all of its bearings.

"Telephone lines can and are being built by farmers on what might be termed the co-operation telephone plan, but a co-operation telephone line is an entirely different proposition from a co-operative creamery or other co-operative farm institutions. In that, as soon as the creamery is built, trouble may begin, it must be run; while with a telephone line, when the line is built, trouble, if there is any ends. It practically runs itself.

"I would not advise the formation of any large companies of farmers for this purpose. A company of from three or four farmers and from that up to eight or ten is enough. When more than this number wish to join the company, they had better form two or more companies and make their lines interchangeable with two other companies, and we have no difficulty for the reason that the others want the use of our line just as much as we want the use of theirs."

STARTLED

By some sudden sound she drops the vase upon the floor. She is nervous and may be told that nervousness is a luxury which only a rich woman can afford to indulge in. Nervousness has cost many a woman her position. Sometimes when women run machinery the price of nervousness is mutilation,—a finger lost or perhaps the whole hand crushed.

Nervousness in women is commonly but a symptom of womanly disease. It is useless in such cases to "doctor" for the nerves alone. Cure the diseases which attack the delicate womanly organism and nervousness will be cured also.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong, sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves and induces refreshing sleep.

"In the fall of 1897, I was troubled with nervousness, headache, heart trouble and female weakness," writes Miss Blanch M. Bracey, of Sale, Oswego Co., N. Y. "Last summer I wrote you and you advised me to try your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I did so and I began to improve rapidly. Continued taking the medicine, half a dozen each of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' for the space of five months, and in less than a year had regained my former health."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets clear the muddy complexion.
